

Quality, Safety, Health and Environment Policy

Albasteel, a company specialized in the production, commercialization, distribution and classification of alloy irons for Foundries and Steelworks through the constant search for economic development, preservation of the environment, health and physical integrity of its employees, assumes the following commitments:

- Promote Quality, seeking continuous improvement of the Quality, Safety, Health, Environment management system with the company's commitment to customers, shareholders, employees, suppliers and communities.
- Meet specific requirements for customer satisfaction, legislation and other subscribed requirements that relate to Safety, Occupational Health and its environmental aspects.
Manage the environmental aspects of its activities in a planned manner, preventing their impacts, with a special focus on solid waste and the rational use of natural resources.
- Prevent, through Risk Management that privileges measures and occurrences in confined places and impacts on Health, as well as develop actions to prevent any other type of incident.
- Maintain channels of communication with the communities where it operates, and of participation and consultation with employees in matters pertaining to occupational safety and health.
- Maintain a continuous process of raising awareness among its employees, in order to promote their professional development and increase the responsibility of each one in relation to the management of Quality, Environment, Safety and Occupational Health.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Eduardo Wetter", written over a horizontal line.

Eduardo Wetter
CEO

REV06-21 / 10/2020